

DOL Fox Valley offices to reopen Wednesday after water main break repaired

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

July 18, 2017

Wilmington – The Delaware Department of Labor's Fox Valley office in Wilmington will reopen to the public Wednesday, July 19, 2017 after repairs were made to a nearby water main break that happened early Tuesday.

The ruptured main prompted agency officials to close the offices before they had opened for the day.

DOL staff are permitted to return to work and members of the public able to resume receiving services at the North Market Street office.

The staff at the Department of Labor thanks the public and staff for their patience as we addressed the matter.

ABOUT THE DELAWARE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

The Delaware Department of Labor connects people to jobs, resources, monetary benefits, workplace protections and labor market information to promote financial independence, workplace justice and a strong economy. The department is made up of four divisions:

Division of Unemployment Insurance

Division of Industrial Affairs

Division of Vocational Rehabilitation

Office of Occupational and Labor Market Information

The combined efforts of these divisions and offices support the employment-related needs of nearly 400,000 Delaware workers and more than 20,000 businesses throughout the state.

CONTACT:

Leon Tucker, Director of Communications

Delaware Department of Labor

302.761.8002 office

302.530.5770 Cell

Leon.Tucker@delaware.gov

<http://dol.delaware.gov/>